Restoration committee to meet

The biweekly meeting of the Committee to Restore Carbondale City Hall will take place on Thursday, April 29, at 7:30 p.m. in Council Chambers on the second floor of City Hall.

The public is cordially invited to attend. Membership is open to all persons who are interested in restoring Carbondale City Hall -- the most important building in Carbondale and one of the few remaining highly integrated Romanesque Revival buildings in northeastern Pennsylvania.

The Committee is entirely self governing and is not aligned with any political party or group. The board of directors of the committee is currently made up of the following persons listed alphabetically: David J. Baum, John P. Brennan, Thomas F. Brennan, James Brownell, John V. Bubemiak, Joseph Burrell, Jean Colville, Mary Louise Dearie, Nan Lufius, Robert G. Lewis, Jr., Joseph Pascoe, S. Robert Powell, Rev. Claude A. Pullis, Robert J. Romano.

There is a work session on Saturday, May 1, starting at 10 a.m. at City Hall. Volunteers are needed to help clean the fourth level of the clock tower and the attic level of the building.
